ADA

DEATH PROM INTEMPERANCE .- Early yesterday morning, some small boys playing on the corner of Eighth and O'Fallon streets, discovered in an unoccupied house a man in a helpless and dying condition. He informed them that his name was Morrice Joyce, and that he had been very much intoxicated the day and night previous. He stated that he was an employee at a rope walk on Washington Avenue. About half past nine o'clock he died. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death from intemperance and exposure. [St. Louis Intel. 5th inst. 1853.
